

Sensei Sam Moledzki

Sam Moledzki began his Karate journey in 1967 and achieved numerous KUMITE and KATA wins throughout his impressive competitive career including;

- 1968 - 7th Canadian International Karate Championships (2nd Place KUMITE);
- 1970 - 3rd Canadian Karate Championships (2nd Place KUMITE + 2nd Place KATA + MPST Outstanding Sportsmanship Award);
- 1970 North American Karate Championships (1st Place KUMITE + 2nd Place KATA);
- 1971 Japan Kanto District Karate Championships Tokyo, Japan (1st Place KUMITE + 1st Place TEAM KUMITE);
- 1972 (Team Captain) Canadian National Team Wuko (WKF) Paris, France;
- and, 1975 (Team Captain) Canadian National Team Wuko (WKF) Long Beach, California, just to name a few.

During the 1970's throughout the early 2000's, Sam served in various capacities including as President of KARATE ONTARIO ASSOCIATION (KOA); Vice-President of National Karate Association (NKA); Technical Chairman of KOA and a member of the COACHING STAFF for KOA.

He was also a senior member of the NKA's National Referee Council and a Pan American (PKF) Referee and World (WSKF) Referee.

Sam served as an appointed Canadian Liaison Representative of the FAJKO (JKF) and official Canadian Branch Director of KOKUSAI BUDOIN (IMAF).

Moledzki sensei's Martial Art history includes extensive training in Japanese Karatedo; Kobudo; Iaido; Kendo and Jodo and is the published author in 2015, of 'MY WAY OF KOBUDO'.